

Ozark Gunman Goes On Shooting Spree; 3 Killed, 2 Wounded

EMINENCE, Mo. — (AP)—Three persons were killed and two others wounded in a wild shooting spree in the Ozarks Hill country last night.

The gunman fled into a heavily wooded area near this south central Missouri town.

The dead include Bill Fansler, about 63, a farmer, his son, Homer L. Fansler, and a four-year-old girl, Barbara Harris.

In Rugged Country
State Police Capt. J. A. Tandy identified the gunman as William Harris, 39, father of the slain child.

Officers set up road blocks and began an extensive search of the hills.

Captain Tandy said it was possible for a man to elude capture for days in the rugged country.

Harris was described as an excellent shot.

"When he shoots ten times, he gets meat every time," a member of the searching party declared.

Sheriff Hubert Wright said Harris' wife had been living at the Fansler home recently. It was not definitely known what motivated the shooting.

Harris appeared at the Fansler farm home unexpectedly last night and shortly afterwards began firing.

Fansler and the Harris girl were killed instantly. Homer Fansler died en route to a hospital. Wounded were Fansler's wife, Rosa, 60, and a brother-in-law, Elmer Nichols.

It was believed the Harris child was accidentally killed during the wild shooting.

Car Ditched
Harris forced Fansler's daughter, 15-year-old Lora Jean, and 16-year-old Joyce Thomas to accompany him to his car. Miss Thomas is a friend of the Fansler family.

The car went into a ditch about a mile and a half down the road. Two farmers, attracted to the scene, were fired on but escaped injury.

Harris fled into the woods taking Lora Jean with him. Miss Thomas was released unharmed.

Barbara Harris' body was found in her father's car. The sheriff said he believed Harris was attempting to take her to a hospital when his car ran off the road.

Lonely Hearts Slayers Delay Death In Chair Stays Of Execution Granted In Appeal

NEW YORK — (AP)—The "lonely hearts" slayers—Raymond Fernandez and Mrs. Martha Beck—have been granted stays of execution pending an appeal to the U. S. supreme court, a defense lawyer announced yesterday.

Stays were signed by Chief Judge John T. Loughran of the New York state court of appeals, Attorney William Richter said.

Clemency Plea Heard
Mrs. Beck, 30, and her boy friend, Fernandez, 35, were scheduled to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison Aug. 31. They were convicted of the bludgeoning strangulation slaying of Mrs. Janet Fay, 66-year-old Albany, N. Y., widow.

The convictions were upheld and the death rates set by the state court of appeals. A clemency plea has been heard by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, but he has not announced any decision.

Richter, recently retained as attorney for Fernandez, said similar stays were obtained from Judge Loughran by himself and Herbert E. Rosenberg, counsel for Mrs. Beck.

Judge Loughran's orders provide that applications for hearing of appeals must be made to the U. S. supreme court within 90 days. The court does not meet until October, and the executions are stayed until it rules on the cases.

Arrested in Michigan
Mrs. Fay was slain in Valley Stream, N. Y., in January, 1949. The prosecution charged she was a victim of a widespread scheme to get money from women whom Fernandez met through lonely hearts clubs.

The defendants, arrested in Michigan in another "lonely hearts" murder case, were extradited here for trial in Mrs. Fay's slaying because New York has capital punishment and Michigan does not.

Cherries Held At Six Cents Large Michigan Crop Price Stabilized

TRAVERSE CITY — (AP)—A stabilized price of six cents a pound cash for Michigan's bumper cherry crop was reported today.

If it were to hold good, it would support a market which had given signs recently of collapse.

The report came from David Murray, a member of the State Cherry commission which has been looking into the situation since a price slump.

Although the price was said to have been stabilized at six cents, many growers were reported to prefer an alternative, calling for a deferred payment plan. Buyers would pay 3½ to 4½ cents a pound down, with an additional payment later in the year.

Murray said a majority of growers favor the deferred payment plan.

Because of the large crop, prices at one time were felt to be in danger of plunging to a fraction of last year's figure of nine cents a pound.

The nation's cherry crop is estimated at 300,000,000 pounds. Half of this would come from Michigan's orchards.

Korean Red Radio Begins Propaganda Of Seoul City Sue

U. S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN KOREA — (AP)—A Red Korean "Tokyo Rose" began propaganda broadcasts in good American English last night from Seoul, Communist-held capital of South Korea.

Like the Tokyo Rose broadcasts of the Second World War, the aim is to undermine soldier morale.

Seoul's woman propagandist chided U. S. airmen for what she called "promiscuous bombing of schools and strafing of farmers."

In honey tones she urged American soldiers to "return to your corner ice cream stores in the states."

A 558th Military Police Company radio picked up the broadcast. Enlisted men immediately nicknamed her "Seoul City Sue."

Percy Jones Annex Returned To Kellogg

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The Percy Jones General Hospital annex at Gull Lake, Mich., will return to W. K. Kellogg foundation ownership under a bill signed yesterday by President Truman.

Formerly the estate of cereals magnate W. K. Kellogg, the annex was donated to the army by the foundation during World War II and was used as a rehabilitation center in connection with Percy Jones hospital at Battle Creek.

General Motors Gives Stockholders Extra 110 Million Dividend

BY JOHN RANDOLPH
NEW YORK — (AP)—General Motors Corporation—earning more money now than any company in history voted yesterday to give its stockholders a extra $110,260,000 dividend.

The move was the latest in a series of record-breaking earnings and dividend announcements the company has made since last fall.

The special payment, amounting to $2.50 per share of common stock, will be paid with the regular third quarter dividend of $1.50. With the two earlier quarterly dividends of $1.50 each, or $3 together, the payments already made or authorized total $7 for only three quarters of 1950.

This compares to an $8 a share total for 1949, which represented the greatest annual dividend payment ever made in corporate history—$851,664,000.

If the company should declare another regular $1.50 dividend for the fourth quarter of 1950, it almost certainly would set another new all-time record.

The new move yesterday followed the company's announcement that its earnings for the first half of 1950 totaled $345,277,339. This is another all-time record-breaking figure and for a six-month period compares to last year's total earnings of $656,434,232.

The full amount of yesterday's special dividend is second only to the $425 year-end dividend voted last Nov. 7.

Although the New York Stock Exchange closed before the dividend was announced, the General Motors common stock gained 1.87½ in yesterday's trading, closing at $89.62½.

Yesterday's news, however, came before the West Coast exchanges closed and GM spurred in late dealings to close at $92 at San Francisco and at $91.62 at Los Angeles.

The new dividend is payable Sept. 9 to stockholders of record Aug. 14. The company has 44,104,000 common shares outstanding, 10,000,000 of which are owned by DuPont interests.

Expansion Needed To Build Up Manpower

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The fighting marines are digging deep into their existing manpower resources and may call soon for authority to expand.

The corps announced plans yesterday to call up all their 60,000 volunteer reserves. This will give them an active strength of 200,000—and mobilization down to just about as far as they can go now.

However, Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services committee said Sunday he expects a request from the defense department in January for another military appropriation including $500,000,000 to increase marine corps strength.

Organized ground reserve units already have been summoned to active duty. Some air reserve units went on active duty about three weeks ago and additional units are to be called up.

Some women reserves also are to be called up but the marines aren't sure how many.

There are 72,000 marine regulars, 44,000 in the organized ground reserve, 7,000 organized reserve air units and 80,000 volunteer reserves.

River Barrier Is Threatened By Communists American Offensive Picks Up Momentum

(By The Associated Press)

United Nations forces resumed their counterattack on the blazing southern Korea front today. To the north Red troops swarmed across the Nakdong river in a grave threat to Taegu. On the east coast 1,000 Red troops or guerrillas were reported stabbing within five miles of the U. S. beachhead at Pohang.

Gen. MacArthur's headquarters announced the southern offensive by marines and doughboys stabbed onward toward Chinju, Communist jumpoff point threatening Pusan, U. S. supply base 55 miles away.

Tanks Roll Up
The new threat on the east coast was reported by South Korean army sources. Pohang, east coast port where the U. S. First Cavalry division landed, is about 70 miles north of Pusan. It is 25 miles south of Yongdok, where South Koreans are resisting mounting Communist pressure.

Front reports said at least 9,000 Red troops forded the Nakdong River barrier in darkness for a threat to Taegu. South Korea's provisional capital and a key to American defenses in the remaining beachhead. More thousands were reported massing on the far side of the river, with Red tanks rolling up.

In the Changnyong area 30 miles to the south U. S. troops were battling to clean out other enemy bridgeheads.

Enemy Losses High
Headquarters said enemy casualties continued high, with about 300 Communists killed or captured in a mopup of pockets by task force Kean, the offensive drive commanded by Maj. William Kean. American casualties for 24 hours were placed at 10 killed, 50 wounded and seven missing.

Operation Kean began to gather momentum again after bogging down at the end of a 10-mile plunge toward Chinju against stiff opposition. It last was reported 12 miles east of burned out Chinju.

U. S. Eighth Army headquarters in Korea said the Red break through the Nakdong river line was of "primary concern" now. Three Communist regiments slipped across the river and more were on the way. At least one tank was across and the Reds were attempting to ferry over more armor in the same manner in which they breached other water defense lines in their march

San Diego Girl Breaks Channel Swim Record; Shirley May Gives Up

By ALVIN STEINKOPF
DOVER, England — (AP)—Florence Chadwick, San Diego swimmer, conquered the English channel today in record time but Shirley May France was forced to give up eight miles off shore.

Miss Chadwick, who is 31 and a professional swimmer, cut the women's record set by Gertrude Ederle in 1926. She made it in 12 hours, 28 minutes, one hour and three minutes under the Ederle mark.

She swam to Dover from Cap Gris Nez, France, on a course of at least 22 miles and scrambled ashore through sea weed.

Thousands of persons lined the White Cliffs of Dover. Reporters asked Miss Chadwick if she was all right. "Yes," she said, "but these slippery jagged rocks are not so good to scramble over after a long swim."

She actually did not touch dry land, at the end.

A few feet from the shore line she clambered into one of her rowboats. But no one doubted that she had finished her swim and made it one of the greatest in the history of channel attempts.

She was not far short of the recognized men's record of 11:05 for the channel swim set by France's Georges Michel in 1923.

Miss Chadwick was the third American woman to make the crossing, the others were Miss Ederle and Mrs. Mille Gade Carver, who crossed in 1926 in fifteen hours and twenty eight minutes.

Shirley May France, the 17-year-old girl from Somerset, Mass., had been swimming 13 hours 46 minutes when she gave up. She was sobbing as she was pulled from the water, within sight of the White Cliffs.

House Starts Third Round On Price Controls

Senate Bill Adheres To Truman Ideas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — (AP) — The House today postponed until at least tomorrow further debate on an economic controls bill—while its banking committee worked on a compromise.

Speaker Rayburn told newsmen he hoped that the House would be in a position to resume consideration of the bill tomorrow. It already has spent almost a week on controls legislation without making any substantial progress.

Chairman Spence (D-Ky.) said the banking committee would meet again this afternoon.

The Senate might pass a controls bill before the House does. The Senate banking committee reached agreement on a bill last night, and that bill is being used as a base for the House committee's discussions.

President Truman would get virtually full discretion as to when or whether to impose economic controls under the Senate committee plan.

Last week the House approved—and later reversed the action—a plan to invoke wage and price controls automatically when living costs rise 5 per cent. It backed tracked after Mr. Truman objected that this would amount to an invitation to raise prices to 5 per cent.

The original proposal was up again today, however, in the form of an amendment by Rep. McKinnon (D-Calif.) to the administration's economic controls bill. McKinnon's proposal would require wage and price controls to be applied on if the cost of living increases 5 per cent above what it was on June 15. The controls would be based on the June 10-25 levels.

Stop Gambling, Sheriffs Told

Florida Governor To Oust Lax Officers

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — (AP)—Florida's sheriffs and constables have notice that Governor Warren will oust them from office first and hear their excuses later if gambling is found in their counties after 30 days.

The governor sent each of 67 sheriffs and 185 constables a personal letter last night announcing a new and tougher policy to clean up gambling, now under study by the U. S. Senate Kefauver committee.

"You are again directed to enforce, in your county or district, the laws of the state of Florida against gambling," he said.

If after Sept. 6, "I find that the gambling laws are not being enforced in your county or district, I will presume that you are guilty of neglect of duty in office and an order of suspension will be made without a hearing."

In the past month, Governor Warren has suspended Sheriffs Walter R. Clark of Broward county and H. Isle Enzor of Okaloosa county and Constables Fox Wilson and O. L. Bengtson of Okaloosa county.

Communist Newsboy Still Selling His Papers In Detroit

DETROIT — (AP)—His newsstand is gone, but Isadore Berenson is still on hand today on a downtown street corner selling the Daily Worker and other Communist publications.

Federal District Judge Theodore Levin refused yesterday to grant Berenson an order to keep the city of Detroit from removing his newsstand. It was located in the shadow of city hall.

Judge Levin sustained the common council order on the ground that the city had a right to regulate its own sidewalks.

Berenson won a request for an Aug. 21 hearing on charges that the police were interfering with his "off-the-arm" sales of the papers.

Girls Again Driving Taxicabs In Detroit

DETROIT — (AP)—A sure symptom of a tightening manpower situation is now at hand in industrial Detroit.

The gals are driving taxi-cabs again as they did in the last war. One company reported today that in recent weeks it has hired 35 women.

City Raises Wages

KINGSFORD, Mich. — The city council last night voted municipal employees a cost-of-living wage raise of five per cent for 19 hours' workers and a $10 a month for 18 salaried employees. The raise included the entire staff excepting the manager. Fire and police chiefs got $10 a month additional.

Another Rebuff Due For Russia In UN

By MAX HARRELSON
LAKE SUCCESS — (AP)—Russia faced another United Nations rebuff on Korea today, but she was expected to strike back with her usual veto.

Delegates were generally agreed on this as they prepared to open the second week of the Korean diplomatic battle at a session this afternoon (at 2 p. m. EST) of the 11-nation security council.

Whether the council would vote today or later in the week remained to be seen. If Russia followed last week's pattern, however, a lot more procedural wrangling appeared to be in prospect.

The delegates had before the two proposals, one offered by the United States and one by the Soviets. When the council adjourned Friday for the weekend, it already had become clear that a majority vote would kill the Soviet resolution and a Russian veto was waiting for the U. S. proposal.

The actual conduct of the military campaign in Korea, however, will not be affected by the council stalemate.

The Soviet proposal provides (1) that the council invite Red China and Red Korea to take part in U. N. Korean discussions and (2) that the council call for an immediate end of hostilities in Korea and order the withdrawal of United States and other foreign troops.

The U. S. proposal condemns North Korea for ignoring the council's previous cease-fire orders and calls upon all countries to use their influence to end the fighting or at least to keep it from spreading.

The American resolution obviously was aimed directly at Russia since most of the world's non-Communist countries already are doing everything they can to stop the North Korean invasion of South Korea.

The Soviet resolution, on the other hand, was not even considered seriously by the council majority, even though Soviet deputy foreign minister Jakob Malik, this month's council president, filed it under the heading of peaceful settlement of the Korean question.

Dewey's action in turning over his August speaking engagements to Hanley and in lending the lieutenant governor the services of his secretary and campaign publicity director, James Hagerty, has been interpreted as a Dewey endorsement of Hanley.

A reported scramble among eligible Republicans for the lieutenant governor nomination, to run on the ticket with Hanley, apparently will delay any decision on the senatorial race until shortly before the GOP state convention in September.

Reds Use Girl Spies In Korea

War Victor Promised Slice Of Manchuria

By BILL SHINN
SOMEWHERE IN KOREA — (AP)—A Korean refugee from Seoul said today Russia has promised to give Red Korea two Manchurian provinces after the war.

Capt. Kenneth R. Cornell, American liaison officer with the South Korean forces, told a news conference this information came from a Korean school teacher who escaped from Seoul July 27.

Cornell said he considered the source and the information reliable.

The refugee estimated 3,000 persons had been killed in air bombings of Seoul up to July 27.

Two 18-year-old North Korean girl refugees said they had been forced into the Red army and given fifth column spy assignments. They said they were ordered to pose as refugees in Yechon and gather information on South Korean troops, arms and equipment.

The two girls entered Yechon, on the northern front, July 29 and were to report to a superior the next day in front of the police station. But South Korean police investigated and jailed them.

The girls said the Korean Reds were impressing all childless women between 18 and 30. Some were trained for combat and others were assigned to espionage.

They said at least one-third of the North Korean troops were green young men and women.

Officer Tells Lions Of Korea People Uneducated But Courteous

Captain Raymond Flaherty, U. S. Army, outlined to the Escanaba Lions club Monday night his impressions of Korea and told the club members of the customs and character of the Korean people. Capt. Flaherty, now stationed in Escanaba, served with the U. S. Seventh Infantry in Korea for several years.

Capt. Flaherty said that there are only 23 miles of paved roads in Korea and that transportation facilities there are far from modern. The Japanese, who occupied the country for many years, built good railroad beds, he said, but the rolling equipment was not adequately maintained.

The Korean people are uneducated, Capt. Flaherty reported, but they have high moral standards. The people are friendly and courteous, he said.

Because of poor sanitation standards, disease is a constant problem in Korea, the speaker told the Lions.

In the United Nations sponsored election in South Korea, 92 per cent of the eligible voters actually cast ballots, Capt. Flaherty reported, a particularly noteworthy achievement in view of the poor transportation facilities.

Fishing Licenses Drop 30 Percent

LANSING—(AP)—Sales of resident fishing licenses, down most of the year because of unfavorable weather, now have fallen nearly 30 per cent below last year.

Through July, license dealers reported to the conservation department they had sold 398,000 resident licenses as compared to 567,000 at the same time last year.

Annual non-resident licenses fell only two per cent, however, from 63,000 to 62,000. Temporary non-resident licenses dropped off 23 per cent from 27,000 to 21,000. Sales of trout stamps fell 11 per cent from 121,000 to 108,000.

Rotarians, Crippled Children Mark First Year Of Camp Harstad

Camp Harstad, the community day camp established for the crippled and handicapped children of Delta county, is one year old and the anniversary was marked yesterday with a program at the camp arranged by the Escanaba Rotary club.

Built last year within six weeks as a community project, the camp is located on Ford River bay shore at a site donated by Ole Harstad of Bark River.

Ole Harstad Honored
Representatives of the group of crippled and handicapped children now enjoying the health-giving facilities of the camp presented Mr. Harstad with a leather billfold, worked with his initials, which they had made in a crafts project.

Maxine Bernsten, one of the campers, expressed the appreciation of the children for their summer camp, where they enjoy a balanced program of work and recreation.

"Without Camp Harstad, many of the children would have to sit home and do nothing during the summertime vacation. There would be reading—for those who could read. Here we are given something to do to build up our minds and our bodies," she told the Rotarians.

Guests of honor introduced were Mr. Harstad and John Bush, Marquette, honorary member of the Escanaba Rotary club and a generous contributor to the club's program for crippled children.

Olson Reviews History
L. W. Olson, chairman of the club's crippled children committee, traced the history of the camp for handicapped children, beginning a few years ago with a day camp on the shore with tents for shelter. A new site had to be found and this was donated by Harstad. Soon thereafter the construction of a permanent camp building was undertaken as a community project—and was completed in six weeks with the help of some contributed materials and work donated by carpenters, bricklayers, and other skilled trades, and unskilled work by "white-collar" professional men.

Cash contributions came from many sources, Olson said, and reported that a $250 check had been received from the Escanaba Kiwanis club as a donation to the Camp Harstad fund for 1950. The club last year also contributed generously from its crippled children's fund.

Activities Described
Mrs. Jean Knapp, camp director, told of the daily program of crafts and recreation for the youngsters, and Clarence Moore, physical therapist, described additional needs of the camp for greater health benefits to the children.

Other Camp Harstad staff members are Counselors Jean Beck, Mrs. Lois Swank, Bill Hemm, Barbara O'Donnell, Jean Wickholm, Nancy Paschal and Mary Shepeck, and Mrs. Ethel Hennessy, cook.

James R. Fitzharris, Rotary president, conducted the meeting and the program was arranged by O. V. Thatcher, program committee chairman.

Tuneful Revue Booked At Fair

Accent Strongly Upon Novelty

Accent is strongly on novelty this year in the brilliant new Gaudette and Randolph Avery musical revue, "Sensations of 1950," scheduled for presentation by Barnes-Carruthers at the Upper Peninsula State Fair, Escanaba, Aug. 15-20. New tunes, new ideas and wonderful new techniques in lighting and staging have been incorporated into this lavish production in an effort to achieve the most refreshing form of entertainment.

In this quest for novelty, the experience and skills of many men were called into action. Scenic designers, costumers, stage technicians, arrangers and, of course, the performers themselves—comprising a precision dancing line of 16 pretty girls, a distinctive dance team and headline vocal group—worked hard and laboriously throughout many weeks to accomplish their specific goals. The finished product, colorful and panoramic in character, represents a vast expense of time, money and talent.

Four re-stillating production numbers form the outline for "Sensations of 1950" with many specialty acts added to enhance the show's appeal. The numbers, each elaborate and richly rewarding, consist of "Ode to Spring," a gayly comic routine expressing the joys of the open road; "Sparkling Capers," a jewel-like fantasy created at a terrific expense; "Saga of the South Seas," a musical travelogue set in the exotic islands of the South Pacific and "Down on the Farm," a fun-packed confection with rural flavor.

A sprightly pace holds audience interest continuously and the whole production is unrelieved with verve and enthusiasm, which helps in no small measure to make "Sensations of 1950" a resounding success.

MAKE A PURSE FROM A SOW'S EAR?

IT'S POSSIBLE, we suppose... but why do it when there are other, cheaper and more satisfactory ways of making a purse? The same holds true for fattening hogs for market. It pays best to get them ready for market on feed which is nutritious and efficient.

Feed is the raw material with which to build hogs for market. Like a sow's ear for a purse, poor feeds make poor hogs. Our hog concentrate is a scientific blend of high quality proteins and essential vitamins and minerals which help produce top market hogs in less time and with less money.

Kiwanis Club Hears Leonard

Safety Head Talks On Police Work

Escanaba should have an ordinance requiring the 100 per cent reporting of automobile accidents, Glen Leonard, director of public safety, told the Escanaba Kiwanis club at its meeting Monday noon.

Leonard said, however, that he did not believe Escanaba has serious traffic problems. There is ample parking space in the business district if more use would be made of First avenues, north and south.

Angle parking creates a traffic hazard in that it forces many motorists to drive in the middle of Ludington street to avoid cars backing out from the curb, Leonard continued. Parallel parking would reduce this hazard, but it would also reduce the amount of space for cars. This in turn, he added, might create a need for parking meters, which might be good for producing city revenue but are "a headache to policemen."

"Policemen have three primary duties," Leonard said. "First, the protection of life and property; second, the prevention of crimes; and third, the apprehension of offenders."

But in addition to these duties, the policemen are called upon to perform many unusual services, such as settling family quarrels, picking up barking dogs, and stopping children from playing in someone's yard.

Escanaba has one policeman to about 1,000 population, as compared to one to 400 in Detroit and one to 800 in Kalamazoo, according to Leonard, who said this community needs more men to perform the many services the public demands of its police department.

In response to a question, Leonard expressed approval of multiple-victim rescuers, and expressed the hope that this equipment could be acquired for use in this community.

Scandinavians Will Organize

Cultural Society Planned In County

Formation of a Scandinavian cultural and historical society is now proposed with the formal dissolution of the Delta County Swedish Pioneer Centennial committee at a meeting in Central Methodist church, Escanaba, Saturday night.

All persons of Scandinavian origin including Danish, Norwegian, Finnish and Swedish are to be invited to participate.

A temporary committee headed by A. T. Sohlberg of Gladstone as chairman has been formed to work out the principal details and a meeting is tentatively scheduled for about September 15 to which all interested parties will be invited.

In dissolving the committee, it was felt that its primary objectives had been achieved and that its functions as exercised in recent years should be taken over by a more widely representative and permanent organization. It was decided that current funds owned by the committee should be held to be turned over to the permanent organization, which it was hoped, would eventually come into being. The committee was formally organized early in 1943 for the purpose of participating in the mid-west Swedish Pioneer Centennial celebrations that were to be held during the year.

Members of the committee include A. T. Sohlberg, chairman; The Reverend Karl Hammar, The Reverend Gustav Lund, The Reverend John Anderson, John S. Park, Lambert Peterson, John Wicklander, William Nelson, Walter L. Olson, Carl Nelson, Frank Pomain, Alfred Anderson, Mrs. Rudolph Larson, Mrs. Allen Johnson.

Johnson of Detroit, Mrs. Bjarne (Cora) Larsen of Escanaba, Mrs. Thelma Swanson of Orion, Ill., and Mrs. Clyde (Lodene) Ward of Wells; four grandchildren and four nieces. Mr. Johnson died in 1937.

Friends may call at Anderson funeral home after 2 p. m. Wednesday. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday from Anderson funeral home with the Rev. Gustav Lund officiating. Burial will be made in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery.

Knaus Is Secretary Of U. P. Council

An advisory council for agricultural extension work in the Upper Peninsula was organized recently at Chatham with Victor Soderman, Crystal Falls farmer, as chairman.

The group, with a representative from each county in the U. P., will help plan the cooperative extension program of Michigan State College and its agricultural agents serving the counties.

Grey Knaus, Cornell, was elected secretary as the fifteen county representatives met to determine some of the primary agricultural problems and needs of the area.

Russell E. Horwood, district extension supervisor in the Upper Peninsula, served as temporary chairman at a meeting attended by many delegates and alternates from the counties. C. V. Ballard, East Lansing, director of the Michigan cooperative extension service, told the group the leaders "sought advice from farmers that are up against the problems of the day."

The agricultural council will parallel the district home demonstration and 4-H Club council. Representatives from all three groups will meet in January to discuss the programs for the coming year and to name representatives to state planning council meetings at East Lansing later that month.

E. L. Anthony, dean of the school of agriculture at Michigan State college spoke briefly and stressed that administrators wanted the extension, research and teaching program of MSC to be "the program of the people of Michigan" and not one handed down by college administrators.

5th Army Instruction Teams To Train Guards

Instruction teams from Fifth Army Headquarters in Chicago will be on hand at Camp Grayling from August 12 to 26 to provide additional help in carrying out the training mission for the Michigan National Guard's 1950 field training encampment.

If Delta county's Company C, 107th Engineers, qualifies numerically, it will participate in this new instruction. It is slated to leave this Friday but must be at 60 per cent strength to qualify.

Teams will provide instruction for armored units, infantry, engineer, and artillery outfits during the course of the two-week encampment. In addition, some 50 key non-commissioned officers will receive specialized training in air transportability of weapons, equipment, and personnel. Two Guardsmen from each infantry, artillery, and separate battalion, and one from each separate company will attend the five-day course.

An armored instruction team will be on hand at Camp Grayling's new armored training center to help train the Guard's armored units. A weapons team for instruction in recoilless rifles and mortars will assist in the training of Guardsmen assigned to heavy mortar companies and those serving the recoilless rifle.

Engineer units of the Michigan National Guard will be assisted in their training by an engineer instruction team. The instruction will include training in demolitions. A quartermaster instruction team will serve as instructors and advisers at the pre-camp training school for mess personnel, and will be available throughout the encampment.

American Troops Finally Move Into Offensive In Korean War

NEWS from the Korean war front reveal that American troops are finally moving into the offensive for the first time since the war began. Up to now our troops have been fighting strictly a delaying battle, pending the arrival of sufficient men and materials for a counterattack.

Time is on the side of the South Korean defenders and their American allies. More and more American arms are being directed to the Korean war while the North Korean army is taking severe punishment with reckless attacks.

Unless Soviet Russia which, of course, is masterminding the North Korean invasion army, elects to send Chinese Communist troops into the battle in support of the Korean Reds, the Korean Communists face almost certain ultimate defeat. And if Russia does choose to move Chinese Communist troops into the Korean battle, it means World War III is already upon us. Russia recognizes this and may not want to accept the risk.

In the meantime, Russia is seeking to toss a monkey wrench into the United Nations' actions on the Korean situation. Russia's delegate, Malik, ended a seven-months boycott of the UN to take over the council presidency August 1 and since then Malik has sought to get the council to issue a cease fire order and to call for the withdrawal of American troops in Korea. The Russian proposal, of course, has not met with any success.

Plan Now To Attend U. P. State Fair

NEXT week is Upper Peninsula State Fair week in Escanaba. From Tuesday, Aug. 15, through Sunday, Aug. 20, the Upper Peninsula's finest exposition will be presented at the state fairgrounds here.

The U. P. State Fair is commonly referred to as the show window of the Upper Peninsula. It is that because it provides the means of displaying the agricultural, manufacturing and business developments in the Northern Peninsula of Michigan. It is educational, providing as it does the means to better living for Upper Peninsula families.

This year the U. P. State Fair board has been unusually successful in scheduling the finest entertainment program in the history of the exposition. These entertainment features will be offered to fair patrons at low prices. Patrons at the fair this year will get the biggest entertainment bargain in history, from opening day to the Sunday closing day.

Everything points to the most outstanding fair in the exposition's history. More exhibits and better exhibits have been assured in practically every department.

Plan to attend the U. P. State Fair—not once but often. The fair is too big to attempt to cover completely in a single day.

Other Editorial Comments

KELLY HAS STRENGTH

(Iron Mountain News)

Capacity attendance at three Kelly-for-Governor rallies in upper Michigan — at Houghton, Marquette and Sault Ste. Marie — clearly indicate not only a substantial support for Harry F. Kelly, on the Republican ticket, in the September primary, but progressive planning, also, for the November election and a new spirit of optimism and determination within the GOP ranks.

Most Republican leaders in the Upper Peninsula endorsed Kelly's candidacy immediately after it was announced. He drew support principally because:

His record in politics stamps him as the strongest candidate Michigan Republicans could offer—a vote-getter behind whom they can march with high hope of victory.

His two-term record in office as the state's World War II governor proves him eminently qualified to serve as the chief executive during the war period which, it now seems certain, lies ahead.

Kelly-for-Governor clubs are active in every county in the U. P. and it appears their leaders are not overestimating the mark by predicting Kelly has the U. P. primary vote virtually in the bag. Kelly himself expresses confidence he will win the nomination and firmly believes he can defeat the Democrats in November. That belief stems largely from his strength in Wayne county, the vote in which won the governorship for the Democrats in the last election. Kelly may not win Wayne county, but he would not have to cut very deeply into Democratic strength there to put the GOP ticket on top in the state.

Kelly's strength is widely recognized—especially by the Democrats. It is no secret that he is the one Republican candidate whose defeat they would welcome in the primary.

Republicans would do well to unite behind Kelly and make certain he wins the field. Kelly rallies in the Upper Peninsula indicate Republicans in this part of the state are doing just that.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—There's been no change in the president's ban against A-bombing in the Korean war, but in order not to get caught unprepared, air force chiefs are working out all details for future use—just in case. They want to be able to retaliate 24 hours after Moscow makes the first aggressive move. This means that lists of main bombing targets and atomic bases for launching B-36's must be all set. . . Chief reason for the navy's quiet current efficiency is the teamwork of Admiral Forrest Sherman and homespun Secretary Matthews. Matthews picked Sherman as the liveliest admiral in the navy by reading the army-navy unification hearings. His judgment has been fully justified. . . They pull together perfectly. . . Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine bowed out of the Senate wire-tapping probe because she would have to sit in judgment on her fellow-senator from Maine, Owen Brewster. Since Brewster has been making noises about defecting her, Mrs. Smith decided she would be a prejudiced judge and excused herself.

HOLDBACK ON HOARDERS

It was significant that when Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas of California proposed an amendment reinstating rent controls in cities where rents increased drastically, not one Republican voted for it. Her amendment was defeated. (Looks like the real estate lobby is still strong). . . Credit Florida's Dwight Rogers with the crackdown amendment on hoarders which would send them to jail. The vote on this crossed party lines. . . Not crossing party lines, however, was the proposal for an immediate excess profits tax proposed by alert Congressman Walter Huber of Akron, O., Democrat. Pushed by Democratic Congressman Dan Flood of Wilkes Barre, Pa., and Mrs. Douglas, the amendment at first was adopted, then thrown out of the control bill. Most Republicans were opposed.

TEXANS POLITICS

Young Maury Maverick (his father was the able congressman from Texas and ex-mayor of San Antonio) is now running for the Texas legislature in a race which sets a record for hell. Maverick, Jr., is opposed by Fretes S. Seeliger, aged 24, son of one of the wealthiest oil families in Texas. The other day, Seeliger, Sr., came to Maverick, Sr., and urged that young Maverick withdraw from the race. "My boy is wealthy and therefore will be an honest legislator," said the older Seeliger. "Furthermore your boy will be drafted, and my boy won't." Young Maverick refused to budge. He has already served four years in the marines in the South Pacific and will serve again if needed. . . Meanwhile the Seeliger family is spending an estimated $25,000 to elect its son, though a lot of veterans are chipping in voluntarily to help young Maverick.

ASIATIC U. N. PRESIDENT

General MacArthur has sent Philippine General Carlos Romulo, now president of the United Nations assembly, a cable addressed "Dear Carlos" which states: "We all watched with so much pride and enthusiasm your great efforts of the past two years in the fields of diplomacy and statesmanship. But now the guns have begun to speak. While I know it cannot be, I would feel a sense of comfort to have you at my right hand again." This should further clinch the idea of having Gen. Romulo go to Korea as part of the U. N. command in order to make Asiatics realize ours is not a white man's imperialistic invasion. Unfortunately this Moscow line is believed in much of the Orient.

UNDER THE DOME

Mystery? . . . Who put the pressure on Congressman Celler of New York to induce him to call off his long-proposed investigation of Pan American World Airways? . . . Out in Illinois, so many Republicans are fed up with the Chicago Tribune's harping of the war effort, that they are forming Republican clubs to re-elect Senator Scott Lucas, Democrat. . . If Washington really wanted to show an all-out war effort it would curtail the fancy, plush planes reserved for cabinet officers, the brass and other VIP's. Most people have forgotten that in World War II, Harry Hopkins, Averell Harriman and other dignitaries hopped the Atlantic in bucket seats or in the bomb bays of bombers. FD himself had no special plane until near the war's end. . . Now not only does Truman have a plane sitting idle, with crew doing nothing, but Secretary Johnson has first lien on the swank "Dew Drop" made for "President" Dewey. There are also ten plush planes on hand to carry bigwigs around the globe. Their joint carrying capacity could rush a thousand badly needed troops across the Pacific instead of having the taxpayers hire special commercial planes—as at present.

Peurifoy's Southern 'Line' Is Enchanting To Congress

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—John E. Peurifoy, Assistant Secretary of State who has just been confirmed as U. S. Ambassador to Greece, has probably had better relations with Congress than any State Department official in recent times. He is probably the only State Department official who could dare criticize and talk back to a senator in the manner he answered Wisconsin Sen. Joe McCarthy's charges of Communism in government.

Yet the congressmen liked Peurifoy so much that they voluntarily recommended that he have his pay raised to $17,500 a year. As Ambassador to Greece, Peurifoy will get $25,000. When Secretary of State Dean Acheson once asked Peurifoy for the secret of his good relations with Congress, he replied simply, "It's just the plain old Southern line I hand them." Peurifoy was born in Walterboro, S. C.

Key senators have been sounded out and the whole Senate Military Affairs Committee is reported favorable to the idea. A new bill has been prepared, providing for six months' training, instead of the year originally requested by the armed services. Legion's staff of Washington representatives thinks it can be put over. Dr. Carl T. One point not generally recognized, say Federal Reserve Board officials, is that easy credit upsets the normal laws of supply and demand. If buyers can make lower down payments and if they can take longer to pay installments, they tend to buy more. Purpose of request to Congress for authority to curb credits is to reduce this artificial demand. It cuts down inflation and saves materials.

Army Secretary Frank C. Pace, Jr., is in a strange position. As Director of the Bureau of the Budget last year, Mr. Pace played a leading part in cutting down the Department of Defense budget from original requests for about $22,000,000,000 to the $13,000,000,000 figure finally announced by the White House and passed by Congress. Now, as Secretary of the Army, Mr. Pace is plunging for bigger defense budgets.

When reminded of the shift in position, he said, "Yes, darn it, I know it." One reason the former Budget Bureau director was given the Army secretaryship, of course, was to put someone in charge who could help straighten out the bookkeeping.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

SCATTERING—This past weekend we spent a couple hours with some guests from Detroit picking blueberries in the pine plains area east of Rapid River. Our efforts met with indifferent success, compared to that of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Phalen of Nahma. But we will tell you about the Phalens and their rich haul of berries a little later in the column.

While scouting around for blueberries we saw hundreds of cars parked in the pine plains, while berry pickers with pails in their hands or tied around their waists wandered here and there, stooping to harvest the valuable berries.

And those berries are valuable this year, perhaps because of their comparative scarcity. The berries are generally scattered. This is reflected in the price in the shops that go as high as 47 cents a pint box.

NOT FOR SALE—We stopped to talk to some of the pickers. One lady with about two quarts of berries in a ten-quart pail sat in the shade of a jack pine, mopping her face with a handkerchief.

"I thought blueberries were too high-priced in the stores," she said. "But after running around picking what I've got here—I wouldn't sell 'em for twice that much!"

HITTING THE SPOT—Some pickers have had good luck in hitting a spot where the blueberries grew abundantly. When this happened, as it did with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Phalen of Nahma, it was like prospectors striking a rich mine of gold.

Mrs. Henry Sargent of Nahma gives me the following account of the blueberry bonanza and added: "And I saw the berries."

"After covering many miles in the two days they searched for berries, the Phalens came upon a patch about 14 miles north of here that no one had picked in." Mrs. Sargent wrote. "They had only small pails to pick in as they had not expected to run onto such berries."

"After filling their pails, which took only a matter of minutes, they began to check in their car to find something to put more berries in. Mrs. Phalen suggested that Dave take off his shirt and they could pile berries on it."

"But then they found a clean pair of work pants in their car and so Dave took the faces from his shoes and tied the bottoms of the pants legs and they filled them up in no time!"

"The berries up there are marble-sized. I saw some they had—but very few that size and I've seen a lot of berries."

"The Phalens picked there several times, not more than two hours at a time, and harvested a total of 76 quarts of blueberries. There are still plenty of berries up there, since it seems no one else is able to find the spot. Mr. Phalen has made several maps for other people showing them how to get there—but they all come back with no berries and tell him he's goofing them."

"But I have seen the berries the Phalens picked and I know it's true. Mrs. Phalen told me one could pick two quarts of berries without moving from a spot."

BEST IN YEARS—Although blueberries generally are scattered, except for such unusual spots as the Phalens found, this is the best crop in the past four or five years. Late frosts killed the fruit buds.

In a bumper crop year millions of quarts of blueberries are harvested in the Upper Peninsula. Picking is on a commercial scale. Many people go into it in a big way, setting up camps on the plains and hiring pickers. The berries go from the fields to the cities by the truck load.

Not so many years ago pickers received $1.50 to $2 for filling a 16-quart crate—and made good daily wages. On the market the berries sold for $3 a crate.

SLIGHT SUCCESS—The national appetite for blueberries is never satisfied, perhaps because there are so many lean years.

Efforts to cultivate the wild plant at first met with slight success, but now strains were developed and now increased acreage is devoted to blueberry farms. Yet to those who know the flavor of the wild blueberry, the tame variety is indeed tame, lacking the combination of sweet and tart that holds its savor whether cooked in a pie or eaten fresh with sugar and cream.

Whoa!

By Gordon Martin

You remember many big events which marked your boyhood days, when the things which now are commonplace were miracles to praise. In that horse-and-buggy twilight, they began to make machines, which today will speed you on your way to many far-off scenes. But regardless of the motor age or where on earth you roam, you'll remember well that day when Father drove his first car home.

She was sure a high-wheeled beauty as she glided in the sun, and you rounded up your youthful pals to join in all the fun. Lots of polished brass and leather straps and metal shiny red, and you couldn't wait to trundle down that winding road ahead. Father cranked 'er up and didn't mind the sultry summer heat, and he liked to bust his buttons climbing proudly to his seat.

And she chugged away as smooth as wagon roads would then permit, and you hoped that Pop could drive 'er straight and nothing would be hit. But he got a little flustered as his speed he tried to slow, and you'd swear that when she wouldn't stop, you heard him holler "Whoa!" Why, no racing cars, no roaring planes which round the globe now roam, ever thrill you like that high-wheeled car when Pop first brought 'er home.

Take My Word For It . . . Frank Colby

Dour, a Scottish word from the Latin durus, "hard; rough; strong; obstinate," is an adjective meaning "sour or sullen; stern; severe; indelible."

Until recently the dictionaries recognized only one pronunciation for dour, rhyming it with boor, moor, spoor. That pronunciation appears to prevail in England and Scotland.

In Standard American speech, however, the word dour rhymes with flour, hour, sour, as if it were spelled "dowr."

The dowr pronunciation now appears in most of the late-edition dictionaries. It should be given the first-choice listing.

Recommended pronunciation: dowr.

Domatologist is pronounced: DOE-muh-TOL-uh-jist. It means "one versed in the science of keeping a house." The word is formed from domato-, "house," plus -logist, "one specializing or versed in."

Commodity Speculation Also Form Of Hoarding

By MARQUIS CHILDS
WASHINGTON—A great many harsh words have been directed at the hoarders who rushed into the market place to grab up sugar, nylons and other things that might become scarce. Such swiftness produces a natural revulsion in most people who sense the danger to the country and the need for steady and reasonable conduct in the face of that danger.

CHILDS

But there is another kind of hoarder not nearly so evident as the greedy who cache away unnecessary supplies. The commodity speculator has been bidding up the prices of the things that all of us must eat and wear.

Operating almost entirely on credit, speculators since the start of the Korean war have been buying up "futures" of soybeans, lard, wheat and other commodities. The Commodity Exchange Authority in the department of agriculture reports:

"A speculator who purchased just before the Korean episode and deposited the minimum margin could have 'cashed in' five weeks later, on July 28, with an approximate 450 per cent profit on lard, 300 per cent on cottonseed oil, 300 per cent on soybeans, 150 per cent on cotton or wool tops, and a comparatively modest 100 per cent on the relatively sluggish wheat futures."

Pure Speculation
A small number of those who trade in commodities are in the market for a legitimate reason. They actually handle the wheat, cotton and lard in the channels of trade and they need, therefore, to protect their holdings in relation to price changes.

But up to 35 or 90 per cent of the dealing in soybeans analyzed by the exchange authority for July 21 was pure speculation—betting that the market would go up as a result of the crisis.

The speculator puts up from 10 to 15 per cent of the cost of the commodity he buys. The size of the down payment—the "margin requirement"—is fixed by the commodity exchanges. In return he gets a piece of paper showing he "owns" so much wheat or lard or cotton. Then when he thinks he has made sufficient profit, he sells something that he never saw or never had the trouble to store or handle in any way.

What is more, thanks to the present tax law, he lists the profit not as income but as capital gain. If he has held the commodity more than six months he pays the capital gains rate. On a profit of, say, $100,000 he would pay $25,000 instead of $75,000.

Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan wants Congress to raise the margin requirement to 50 per cent. This, he argues, would work to keep out a lot of the gamblers who are driving up commodity prices. Inevitably, of course, the speculation in the price of "futures" forces up the price paid in cash by those who handle the commodities and finally the price paid by all of us for salad oil, cooking fat and so on.

In hearings before the Senate Banking and Currency committee a parade of directors of commodity exchanges appeared to oppose giving the federal government power to regulate margin requirements. A provision for this had been included in the administration bill on emergency powers to handle the Korean crisis. By a vote reported to have been 8 to 1 the committee knocked out the section on margin requirements.

May Curb Gambling

Yet when the emergency powers bill is finally passed, it may contain some kind of curb intended to check the gambling in commodities. Committee Chairman Burnett Maybank spoke during the hearings of the need to "stop gamblers from taking advantage of the situation."

"I do not want to sit here and let 95 per cent of the people be hurt because of 5 per cent of the people," Senator Maybank said.

Five per cent is high. The number of speculators would be much nearer a fraction of one per cent. Yet they have contributed a lot to the fact that since the attack on Korea the price of lard has risen 41 per cent, cottonseed oil 31 per cent, soybeans 25 per cent, wheat 6 per cent and eggs 5 per cent.

Not so long ago a loud hue and cry was raised because members of President Truman's official family were discovered speculating on commodities. Supposedly they could have had advance information of governmental decisions that would have enabled them to buy and sell on the basis of a sure thing. That was in peacetime.

A decision was taken by this government on June 27. It was a decision announced to the world to resist the brute force of Communist aggression. To use that decision with all that it means in blood, sweat and tears to bid up prices and make new and phenomenal profits is something less than patriotic.

Open Season Near For Shooting Stars

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — (P) — Coming up for their annual celestial show Aug. 9-13 are the periscope meteors.

The University of Michigan observatory said the shower of shooting stars—as a rule a very reliable display—will be seen at 10 p. m. in the northwestern sky.

The periscope have been up to it every year since at least as far back as 811 A.D., astronomers say.

They fly across the sky toward the constellation Perseus. Friction sets them afire when they enter the earth's atmosphere.

Dr. Hazel M. Losh, university astronomer, said the shower should be at its most brilliant on Aug. 11.

History Matches MacArthur's Age

NEW YORK — (P) — Douglas MacArthur at 70 is one of a number of generals who have maintained great military reputations at an age when most commanders have retired.

According to Col. Roswell P. Rosengren, chief of army information in New York, Charles Magne at 72 was converting the Saxons to Christianity with the sword. Frederick the Great of Prussia was giving a good account of himself in the field up to the 74th and last year of his life. Paul von Hindenburg was nearly 67 at the time of his victory at Tannenberg, and was chief of the German staff at 70.

Church That Folds Up Daily Holds 120

WHITTIER, Calif. — (P) — Some 120 worshippers will attend services tomorrow in a church that collapses like an accordion.

The Whittier First Brethren church, complete with pews, pulpit and steeple, can be folded up into a 30 by 8 foot trailer, hitched to the rear of an automobile and hauled away. Unfolded, it has 720 square feet of floor space.

The trailer church was modeled after one built by Rev. J. M. Ruthven and used for many years in Canada. The portable sanctuary will serve the Brethren congregation temporarily until a permanent structure is built.

Then, the collapsible chapel will go on the road as a traveling place of worship.

Anti-Religious Petitions Are Out In Hungary

VIENNA — (P) — Petitions denouncing "church reaction" are being circulated throughout Hungary, according to Catholic sources in Vienna.

The petitions ask that all religious instruction be abolished in Hungarian schools because "it poisons the soul of youth." They also ask that all monasteries and convents be closed "because they are centers of reaction and espionage."

Patriotic Fervor Still Lacking In Korean War

By ROBERT C. RUARK
NEW YORK — A 20-year-old moving picture called "All Quiet on the Western Front" is playing to capacity houses here—and attracting oddly enough, an overflow of youngsters who could not have been born when the picture was first released.

RUARK

Us old-timers will remember that "All Quiet" was a bitter denunciation of war, from the standpoint of the people who must fight them. It traded heavily on horror and hunger, filth and fear, death and destruction. Its main argument was that no war was noble; no war solved anything for anybody. This was the fashionable reaction to World War I.

What Starts Wars
What more or less amazed me was the outbreak of spontaneous cheering among the audience over a couple of lines spoken by some German soldiers who are sitting around in a behind-the-lines billet arguing over the causes of war.

Private Tjaden is arguing the point that he and the Kaiser could not be possibly interested in a war, since the Kaiser has everything he needs and he, Tjaden, is angry at no one. The proposition is then advanced that wars start because two countries become angry at each other, and someone remarks that he does not see how a French mountain can be sore at a German field.

Someone then says that wars start because one people offends another people, and Tjaden says that in this case he is going back home, because nobody has offended him. He doesn't even know any French or English people personally. There was a roar of applause from the audience when this line was uttered.

A little later there was another burst of applause when the late

Louis Wolheim, who played the tough sergeant Kat, said that the way to stop wars would be to herd all the emperors and kings and cabinet members and top military people into one arena. They would be armed with clubs, and clad only in their underdrawers. This, the sergeant said, would put an end to all wars. The audience arose and clapped loudly.

This seemed to me to be an odd reaction from the nation's youth at the start of a fresh military operation involving flags and shooting and alien real estate. You would expect, from past experience, that the youth would be clamoring for a gun and a swift ticket to the new war, rather than overflowing a 20-year-old moving picture that cries down all romantic concept of battle. It is downright unpatriotic, and could be construed as a sign of softness with overtones of treason.

It is not supposed to be cricket to disapprove of war when your young men are dying abroad. War is supposed to turn swiftly from hell, when viewed during peace, to bright adventure, when viewed at the beginning of a war. Do you suppose that any great number of our young cockerels are not actually eager to be shot at in Korea, under the good housekeeping seal of the United Nations?

What accounts for the howling success of a patched-up old film that bitterly denounces ardent patriotism in time of war? There is not one line of glorification of combat in "All Quiet". There is a lot of blood and mud and corpses and trench-rats and shell shock, but no wild blue yonder stuff, and everybody gets killed messily.

But in view of the standing-room-only audience's approval of the picture's message, its violent applause, I am beginning to wonder whether selling our current involvement is going to be an easy public relations job. Looks to me as if we are working on a negative customer.

From what I get of everyday reaction to the Korean business, it seems to be a sort of war which may be necessary, but which the average eligible wants small individual part of. This is regrettable, from a national standpoint, but may be unfortunately true.

Firemaking is a lost art among the Bolivian Siriono Indians, who pass a burning brand down from generation to generation.

Flaherty Story Is Published

Iron Mountain Man Adds Another Laurel

Robert J. Flaherty, former Iron Mountain resident who now is a leading motion picture producer in Hollywood, is the author of a story, "Comock the Eskimo," published in the July issue of Reader's Digest.

Flaherty's story, which has been widely reviewed by newspapers and magazines, tells of an Eskimo who left Greenland for Canada, and encountered many dangers and pitfalls. The article was condensed from a British Broadcasting company radio program and relates one of the author's experiences while exploring in Canada, Alaska and the Far North.

The former Iron Mountain resident recently was praised by the Milwaukee Journal as "the only American movie producer who has made prize winning pictures by deliberately spurning the Hollywood formula of ballyhoo, budgets and beauties."

The film producer was born in Iron Mountain in 1894 and attended Michigan College of Mining and Technology for seven months. He has made five expeditions to the sub-Arctic and during four of these mapped the Northern Ungava territory, the Baffin Land regions and the Belcher Islands in Hudson Bay. One of the islands has been given Flaherty's name by the Canadian government.

On his fifth expedition, Flaherty filmed the epic "Nanook of the North." This picture and others, including "Tabu," "Man of Aran" and "Elephant Boy" have won him the distinction of being called "father of the documentary film." His most recent picture is "Louisiana Story." "The Titian," a story of Michelangelo, is presented by him.

No Permanent 'Cure' For Alcoholism Found

By AN ALCOHOLIC

The victim of alcoholism suffers from mental, physical and social disorders which he has not been able to treat, correct or solve for himself. For the purpose of rehabilitation or recovery, all of the factors having any bearing on the alcoholic's disordered personality must be considered in any course of treatment. It is essential to bear in mind that we speak of rehabilitation or recovery rather than "cure" because there is no cure for alcoholism, at least to date.

A cure would imply that the compulsion underlying alcoholism would be removed. It would further imply that the alcoholic could resume drinking without experiencing any of the difficulties previously associated with his uncontrolled drinking. All evidence gathered thus far clearly rules out the possibility of an alcoholic ever becoming a moderate, controlled drinker. The objective of all treatments is to stop the drinking and correct the personality defects of the individual so that he can become a contented, useful person without the use of alcohol.

Alcoholism Is Illness

Since alcoholism is an illness, it is a medical problem and a physician or psychiatrist interested in the problem should be consulted whenever possible. Diagnosis of the underlying causes—mental, physical or social—responsible for the excessive uncontrolled drinking should be determined at the outset in order to prescribe the most effective treatment for the individual afflicted.

There are many forms of treatment employed for alcoholism including psychiatry, psychoanalysis, conditioned-reflex treatment, hospitalization, religious conversion, Alcoholics Anonymous, and others. All have played a part in the story of rehabilitation. No one of these treatments should be expected to produce recovery for all alcoholics. In every case where a drinker is suffering from the physical effects of a prolonged drinking bout, hospitalization should be made as quickly as possible to prevent serious complications. Physical recovery is essential before attempting to treat the underlying causes of the compulsion to drink. Perhaps physical diseases or disorders of a serious nature are directly responsible for one using alcohol as a pain killer. Medical attention will rule out such possibilities or establish them, as the case may be. Once the alcoholic has been "dried out" and his physical distress reduced, measures may then be prescribed to treat the basic causes. Since each alcoholic presents an individual problem, professional diagnosis tends to eliminate haphazard, costly ventures in trial and error treatment.

Hospital Care Needed

Alcoholism is sometimes a symptom of a grave mental disorder which requires confinement in an institution. However, the majority of alcoholics do not suffer from such deep-seated complications and usually respond favorably to appropriate treatment—provided they have a sincere desire to recover and believe that recovery is possible.

The aversion or conditioned-reflex treatment requires that the patient be hospitalized for a period—perhaps two or three weeks. During the course of treatment, the patient is given intermittent doses of alcohol quickly followed by medicine to induce vomiting and lingering nausea. In time, this repeated process builds up an automatic aversion to the taste, sight, scent or thought of liquor. This aversion, however, will not last indefinitely once the patient is discharged. It must be reinforced from time to time. If the patient supports this treatment with group therapy such as is practiced by recovered alcoholics, the aversion treatment can be a most effective initial help along the route to recovery.

Psychiatric treatment begins with the doctor's attempt to help the patient develop insight of his own so that he will learn and understand for himself more about the unconscious motives and urges which have led him to use alcohol excessively. Frequently, patients can be taught to see how futile are their attempts to escape by way of alcohol and thus become less apt to use alcohol when confronted with future distressing problems. The patient is made to realize that for him, drinking in moderation is an impossibility. He is helped to understand himself and to know that the fault is not the bottle, but in himself. With the growth of insight comes the decline of dependence on alcohol and the birth of a sincere desire to recover. Such treatment is not of short duration and, of course, is not available to all due to shortage of facilities for such.

More Clinics Needed

The Clinic approach to alcoholism is a most effective recovery measure, but there are all too few in this country. Clinics patterned after those established and operated by the Yale Plan have proven unusually helpful in salvaging difficult alcoholic cases. These clinics are staffed with doctors, psychiatrists, social workers, lay therapists, and investigators skilled in the techniques of handling every phase of the alcoholic's personality problems and the factors influencing him. Physical, mental and material difficulties are analyzed at the clinic and every effort expended to correct them. There is urgent need for more of these clinics on the community level to care for the large group of neglected alcoholics who could be salvaged were proper care and guidance to be exercised. Jails and workhouses have miserably failed as remedies. Much less costly and far more effective measures could be introduced with the establishment of community clinics. Every citizen can contribute to the cause of rehabilitation by supporting plans for community clinics, or by lending their active assistance to those already in operation.

Protection Promised Men In Service With Financial Troubles

WASHINGTON — (P) — Reserves and National Guardsmen called to active duty will be protected legally if they are unable to make their service pay cover their financial obligations.

An Army representative gave this example of the type of protection provided by the World War II soldiers and sailors Civil Relief Act:

Suppose a Guardsman agreed to pay $100 a month on a home purchase before being called up. If he is unable to continue payments, he may seek to have them reduced to a level he can meet, thus forestalling foreclosure. He may obtain legal assistance from the army if necessary.

Should the matter be taken to court, the judge could be expected to order that payments be held to a "reasonable" amount during the man's federal service.

The same type of relief covers installment payments and life insurance premiums, the army spokesman said.

It is available equally to Reservists, National Guardsmen and draftees called into federal service.

New Auto Sales Highest In History

DETROIT — (P) — R. L. Polk & Co. says new car sales in June were the highest for any month in history.

Sales may have exceeded 600,000, the auto industry statisticians reported today from a survey.

The official record of 514,478 for the United States was set in May of 1941.

Polk based its estimate for June of this year on new car registrations in 35 states normally accounting for 58 per cent of the national total.

These totaled 356,094. In the same states in June of 1949 the total was 254,770.

This June's registration of new trucks was estimated at 95,000. This compares to the year's high of 96,226 of last March.

Population Shifts May Have Effect On Game And Fish

By STANFORD BRADSHAW
(For James A. O. Crowe)

LANSING — (AP) — Shifts in human population can have some direct effects on game and fish populations, conservation department experts believe.

The "back to the farm" movement in the Lower Peninsula, they indicated, may affect rabbit, quail and pheasant populations in the "fringe" areas.

In the Upper Peninsula, where the trend seems to be away from the farm, sharp-tail, grouse, prairie chickens and deer may be affected.

Sometimes, each of these trends could be beneficial to wild life. In other instances, with differing factors, it may be detrimental.

Recreational Lands Going

Two things, however, appear to be reasonably certain about the recent developments.

One is that the "suburban shift" in the Lower Peninsula is making it more difficult for the department to obtain recreational lands. These are needed more than ever because of the booming population.

The other is that the increasing decentralization of industry along one rural stream—in the main is hurting muskrats, fish and ducks.

L. A. Davenport, veteran of the department's game division, pointed out that pheasants and quail usually are better in areas that are farmed.

"If a city worker buys a small farm, but doesn't work it," he said, "the population might drop off some."

The birds, however, might use the unfarmed land as cover and forage from adjoining farms. In this case, there might be an increase.

Rabbits, Davenport said, might actually increase due to untended farm land going back to brush. But in turn, an increase in the number of free-ranging dogs and cats might hold the cottontails in check.

Lumbering Another Factor

In the Upper Peninsula, Davenport observed that the abandoning of some marginal farms probably would have a direct effect on the number of opening areas, and the adjoining "edge."

Sharp-tails, prairie chickens, and deer, he noted, all depend quite largely on edge. If the openings are allowed to go back to brush, there might be some effect over a long period of time.

If this away from the farm movement should result in an increase in small lumbering operations, though, he saw that the wild life might actually be helped. Such lumbering creates new "openings."

As a controlling factor to all this, Davenport pointed out that good land will support good game and poor land, poor game.

W. W. Shappon, game division's waterfowl habitat expert, said that most of rural industry's effect on muskrats, ducks and fish probably was indirect.

"Industrial wastes," he said, "destroy food plants rather than killing game outright." The direct killing, he noted, nevertheless is the more spectacular.

When factories build dams and cause sudden fluctuations in the water levels of streams, Shappon said, "muskrats build their homes and then get drowned out." But if the dam results in a constant stream level, he said, the result is likely to be helpful rather than harmful.

"In any event," he said, "more attention will have to be paid to the pollution angle in the future by industry and by people in the area concerned."

Charles Millar, assistant chief of the lands division of the department, pointed out the difficulties caused by the desire of city dwellers for "a little place in the country."

"The state," he said, "has competitors now."

"Southern Michigan lands which the department once bought for $20 to $25 an acre now must be paid for at the rate of $50 to $100 an acre, Millar asserted.

The same trend, he said, continues even to the Upper Peninsula, where residents of metropolitan areas are buying land for hunting lodges and cottage sites. This, he said, was particularly noticeable during the war and after.

Democrat Publicist Named Assistant To Postmaster General

WASHINGTON — (AP) — John M. (Jack) Redding, publicity director for the Democratic national committee, was nominated by President Truman as assistant postmaster general.

Redding, the publicity director for the committee since April 1, 1947, was named to succeed Paul Aiken, who resigned to run for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Kansas.

The new assistant postmaster general—there are four such posts paying $15,000 a year—will also serve as public relations advisor to Postmaster General Donaldson, the White House said.

Secretary Charles G. Ross, White House press secretary, said he did not know when the national committee will announce a successor to Redding.

Sales And Use Taxes Set Record In July

LANSING — (AP) — Michigan's sales and use taxes turned more money into the state treasury in July than any other month in history.

Revenue Commissioner Louis M. Nims said the taxes realized $20,267,000 in the month. This compared with $19,462,000 in July last year and $16,855,000 in June this year.

Nims said that the rise in July taxes did not reflect panic buying in connection with the Korean war. The taxes were paid on June business before the war started.

Rather, he said, he felt the settlement of a long-term contract between General Motors Corp. and the CIO United Auto Workers spurred buying.

In July, the cigarette tax fell off $80,000 from July, 1949, to $2,084,000.

Ford Builds New Lincoln-Mercury Plant At Detroit

DETROIT — (AP) — The Ford Motor company's Lincoln-Mercury division is going to build a new multi-million dollar plant to take care of "pyramiding demand."

All Lincoln and Mercury assembly operations—to a capacity of 640 cars a day—will be handled at the new plant.

The plant, representing a "major expansion," will be built on a 175-acre site west of Wayne on Michigan avenue, within 10 miles of the Detroit city limits. Construction may start this month.

Over 250,000 Lincolns

Benson Ford, general manager of Lincoln-Mercury division, announced the details.

As a production unit of the auto industry, the new factory will supplant the 32-year-old present Warren Avenue Lincoln plant which was born of World War I.

The present plant was built to make Liberty motors in that war effort, and the first Lincoln car was built there in 1920.

Two years later Ford bought the factory from the Lincoln company. Since then it has turned out tank engines and other products for the armed forces.

Mercury cars have been assembled at Ford's Rouge plant. Both the Mercury and Lincoln, however, now are to be built at the new factory. The old Lincoln plant will be retained for administration purposes.

Judge Who Jailed Man For Laughing In Cafe Must Pay

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The judge who had the mechanic jailed for laughing is going to have to pay for the privilege.

Superior Judge Samuel Blake ruled that Justice of the Peace Stanley Moffatt of Huntington Park must pay John G. Frazier, who laughed and chucked a waitress under the chin while Moffatt was eating his lunch.

Frazier was acquitted of disturbing the peace, and Moffatt was defeated for reelection afterward.

Frazier sued for false arrest and asked for $100,150 damages. Judge Blake ruled yesterday that Frazier is entitled to damages but that he'll have to consider how much.

"Judicial immunity was never intended to extend to a judge eating his lunch in a public restaurant," Judge Blake ruled.

Judge Moffatt, testifying about Frazier's laugh, said: "It was like a war whoop or the braying of a jackass."

built plants at St. Louis, Los Angeles and Metuchen, N. J.

Benson Ford said the site for the new plant was chosen for its availability to rail and truck transportation. It also is accessible to employees at Rouge and the present Lincoln plant.

The present plant, Ford said, has been "too small and inefficient and we have been unable to expand as our business increased."

USA Produces 80% Of Electric Current In World, Rotarians Told

Much has been said concerning the huge power projects that have been built and are being built by the federal government, but very little has been said concerning the electric power furnished by private industry. Axel Marin, a member of the faculty of the University of Michigan told Rotarians at their Monday meeting.

This, he said, has given the public a rather warped picture of the indispensable part the power utilities of this country play in the economic life of America.

Government projects producing electric current may be able to provide power at rates to the public that would be ruinous to private power companies. He added that this did not tell the whole story. Taxpayers had to foot the bill for these government projects and in the final analysis it would be found that private enterprise was providing power more cheaply.

Power utility investment, said

Mr. Marin, will average $50,000 per employee.

At the conclusion of his remarks, Mr. Marin stated that electric power, so vital in industrial production—including war materials—constitutes a distinct advantage for America. America produces 80 per cent of the electric power generated in the world.

This he said could only happen under free enterprise and private industry.

He warned against the encroachment by the government in the power industry which, he claimed, would like socialized medicine and similar theories advocated by certain political circles, be ruinously expensive and dangerous to our industrial supremacy.

Complete Last Week's Twilight Golf This Week

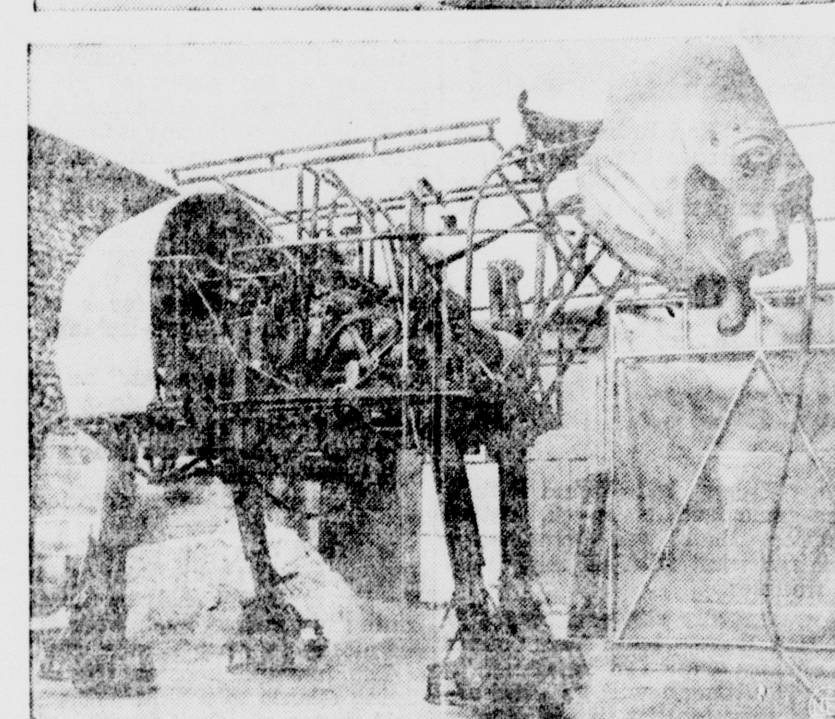

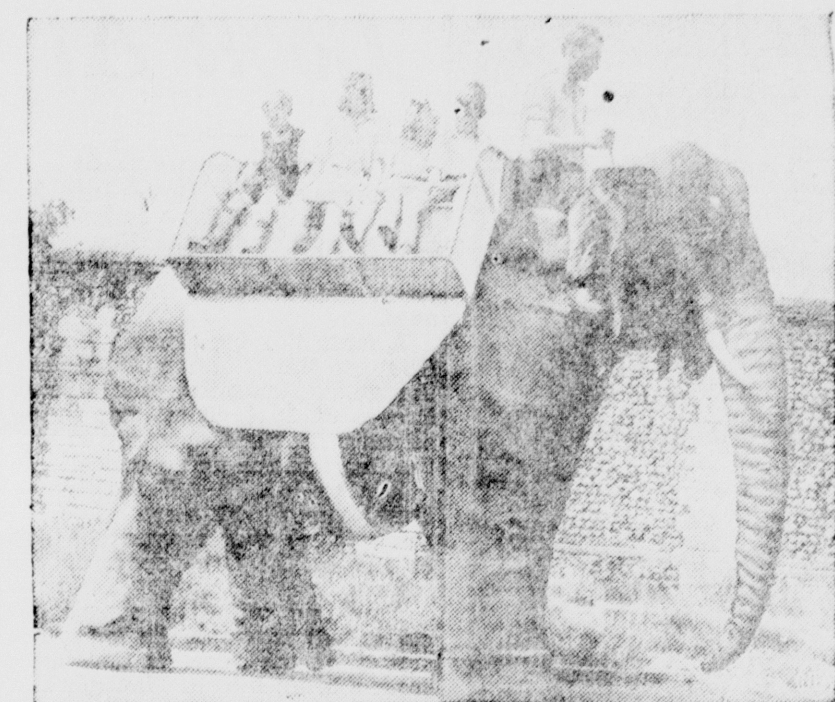

Only two twilight league matches were played by men of the Gladstone club last week because of rain so unplayed matches will be in force for this Wednesday and results will be used to compute the final standings for last week.

In the two matches played at that time the Buffaloes won from the Bobcats while the Elks defeated the Bears.

By winning the Buffaloes continued in the pace-setting spot in twilight play.

Will Invade GYC By Land Or By Sea

A return "Friendship Invasion" will be made by members of the Escanaba Yacht club Wednesday evening, according to word received by Commodore Clyde Cole of the GYC from George A. Peterson, commodore of the Escanaba club.

Several weeks ago the Gladstone club started the inter-city meet when about 50 local club members went to Escanaba to "invade" the county-seat club in a gathering designed to promote more activity between the two clubs.

Commodore Peterson advises that the trip will be made by boat unless weather is poor, in which case the trip here will be made by auto.

Escanaba yachtsmen will be entertained at the clubhouse and lunch will be served.

All members of the GYC are invited to be on hand to entertain the visitors.

Durocher Let Bars Down; Look At Those Giants Now

(By The Associated Press)

Remember The Date—July 20, 1950. It may go down in baseball history as the day the New York Giants began their amazing uphill climb that brought them a pennant.

A fantastic pipe dream? Maybe. Stranger things have happened, though. Remember the Boston Braves of 1914. They dug themselves out of a deeper rut to win the flag and the world series.

Win or lose, the Giants' sensational run of 16 victories in 17 games since that momentous day is one of the high spots of the season.

How and why the streak got under way is one of the top sports stories of the year. It developed from a brainchild of Manager Leo Durocher.

On July 19, the Giants had absorbed a couple of unmerciful beatings at the hands of the St. Louis Cardinals. After taking an 18-4 thumping in the afternoon, they came back to suffer a 10-3 loss at night to sink deeper into sixth place. That made it 13 defeats in their last 14 games.

The weary and groggy Giants dragged their feet into the clubhouse fully prepared for a typical Durocher tongue-lashing. It never came.

"Go out and have fun," he said. "I don't care what you do or when you get back. The curtain is lifted. Just make sure you show up at the ball park tomorrow."

The result? Sixteen victories in the next 17 games.

It looked like the Giants might drop one last night. They spotted the Braves a 3-1 lead in the first inning but roared back with a 14-hit attack to whip Boston, 9-3.

The triumph boosted the high-flying Giants to within two and a half games of the fourth place Cards, who were buried under a 9-0 score by the pace-setting Philadelphia Phils. They were the only games played in the majors yesterday.

The results left the National League picture looking like this: The Phils led the field by four games. The Braves are in second place, a half game in front of the Dodgers. The Cards are five and a half games out. The Giants, a new contender, trail by eight games.

Monte Kennedy started for the Giants but it was Jack Kramer who picked up the victory. The veteran righthander did a splendid relief job, holding the Braves scoreless after relieving Kennedy in the first.

Ken Johnson, a Cardinal discard, hung the shutout over his former mates. Making his first start since July 4, the lefthander throttled the Redbirds with two hits. He walked six and fanned the number. It was the fourth victory for the fast but erratic Kansas. He hasn't been beaten yet.

The College All Stars against Philadelphia Friday night will join the Bay team in Toledo Saturday night. They are Center Clayton Tommemaker of Minnesota; End Gordon Soltan of Minnesota; Guard Willie Leon Manley of Oklahoma; and Halfback Larry Coutre of Notre Dame. All are signed except Coutre.

Golf Pairing Same As Last Week's
Because last week's Highland twosome league schedule was rained out, this week's schedule will be the same as that published for last week.

Furgol In Good Spot
At 214 is young Fred Hawkins, the center from El Paso, Tex. He led the 69's in all 13 games. He is a power hitter, who turned pro last winter and is still seeking his first win.

Also at 215 are two high-ranking cash collectors who are capable of mighty straight drives—Bobby Locke and Lloyd Mangrum. Only one stroke behind them is Sam Snead, the top money winner who has bagged most of his greenbacks with sensational final round finishes.

Mangrum, the defending All-American champion, sped into contention yesterday with a 68 while Furgol, Alexander and Locke posted 69's. In all 13 pros broke 70 in the field of 76 after the greens had been watered and the pins placed in more orthodox spots.

Furgol is the sentimental favorite. He has overcome a handicap that would have forced a lot of fellows to play croquet instead of undertaking a career of golf against the nation's best.

"I'm just a 33-year-old guy with a lot of mileage and a crooked arm," says the personable gent who has averaged 71.41 strokes through 78 competitive rounds this season.

He has had to groove a swing with tremendous body action to compensate for his shriveled left arm, the result of a fall from a playground climbing bar when he was 12.

Furgol won the All-American amateur title at Tam O'Shanter in 1944 and soon afterward turned pro. He finished third in the 1947 All-American pro and collected $2,300, his biggest single money win.

But since he started playing for pay he never has won outright any regulation P. G. A. tourney, although tying twice for minor titles on the circuit.

FINAL WORKOUT
DELAFIELD—The college all-stars plunged into their final workouts today after a secret drill in Chicago. The Soldier Field last night. The collegians, cream of the 1949 football crop, will face the champions of the National football league in the big lake-front arena Friday night.

Spilling The Dope

When Escanaba's Carolyn Johnson met Menominee's Roselynn Caley for the U. P. women's golf finals at Menominee last week it was really veteran against novice. It was the first U. P. tourney for Carolyn, who is 16. Miss Caley, a member of the Women's Army corps in World War II, competed in her first tournament in 1922, long before Carolyn was born.

Roy Gustafson and Bob MacDonald of Newberry and Donald Doney of Ishpeming have reported to Coach Eddie Olds of the North football team at Negaunee. They will play against South in the all star game Saturday night.

There's no doubt that Bill Hoeft, sensational Oshkosh high school star signed by the Detroit Tigers, can throw a strike . . . Hoeft, farmed out to the Richmond (Ind.) Tigers, recently paid a fine of $10 and similar costs . . . he was arrested by police for tossing a lighted firecracker into a passing automobile.

Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn's Negro star, will coach a team in the Puerto Rican league next winter. He will not play, however.

The Green Bay Packers are getting angry. Tackle Glenn Johnson and End Bill Kelley have jumped their contracts and gone to Winnipeg to play for Jack Jacobs. The latter, who is in line to coach the Winnipeg Bombers, is said to be trying to lure End Abner Wimberly. The Packers are planning court action.

Local Yachts Plan Return 'Invasion'

Escanaba yachtsmen will make a return "friendship invasion" to the Gladstone Yacht club Wednesday night. Commodore George Petersen said today.

The invasion will be made by yachts to Gladstone, if weather permits, but in the event of inclement weather the Escanabans will travel to Gladstone in automobiles.

The Gladstone yachtsmen visited the Escanaba Yacht club in July and this is a return call by the Escanabans.

Laundry Gets First Defeat

Even the mightiest, of the mighty must fall. Yea, even the Escanaba Steam Laundry softball team, it lost its first game of the season to an Escanaba team last night, being defeated 4-2 by the Power and Light outfit.

Even in defeat, however, the Laundry boys looked tough, with Bill Penard holding the winners to only two hits. He was wild, however, and walks proved his downfall.

Art Peterson, on the other hand, allowed four hits but was in top shape in the pinches. His cause was aided materially by a booming triple by Keith Auger in the fifth inning with one on base.

In "one for the books," Louie Kositzke of the Liberty Loans allowed only five hits but the White Birens got 11 runs off him. The answer again was that Kositzke walked nine and hit one batter.

In his case, however, his mates produced 21 hits and 15 runs to give the Loans a 15-11 victory. Bob Anderson and Tom Dufour each got four for five with Anderson bashing a homer with two down in the sixth inning slugging when the Loans made 12 runs.

In another game, Bert Kruger hit a homer and Mike Greis tripped as the Kiwanis defeated the Fruit Store, 9-7.

Doby Pressing Kell For Lead

CHICAGO —(AP)— George Kell, Detroit's classy third baseman, maintained his slim edge over Cleveland's Larry Doby in the American league batting race.

Kell, defending batting champion, was the top hitter with .353 as against Doby's .348 for games through last Sunday. Each gained two points during the week.

As the Tigers fought to maintain the league lead, Kell also kept his lead in two other departments—the most hits and most doubles.

The league's first 10 hitters showed only one newcomer over last week. Billy Goodman, the young Boston outfielder—first baseman jumped from out of the select circle into third place with a .344 mark. Big Walt Dropo, Goodman's replacement at first for the Red Sox, was deadlocked for fourth spot with Hoot Evers of Detroit, each with .332.

Another Boston player, Johnny Pesky, took the biggest drop, from fourth to seventh place. Immediately above him was teammate Al Zarilla with .329. Others in the leading 10 were Yogi Berra, New York, .323; Phil Rizzuto, New York, .320 and Johnny Groth, Detroit, also .320.

Dropo led in runs batted in with 104 and his teammate Vern Stephens was leader in runs with 90. Kell had 144 hits, including 31 doubles, to lead in those departments.

Bobby Doerr of Boston and Gene Woodling of New York were tied for the most triples, each with nine. Al Rosen held his home run lead, 29, although he failed to increase his total last week. Dom Di Maggio stole two bases to increase his total to 12, tops in the league.

Paul (Dizzy) Trout of Detroit took over the spot as leading pitcher with an 8-2 record for .300. Bob Lemon, who has a 17-5 record, was tops in strikeouts with 106.

Bears And Bark River Play Monday Evening

Note to local area baseball fans: Mark next Monday night down on your calendar as a "must."

That's the night the Escanaba Bears and Bark River, Tri-county league leaders, meet in that benefit game for the Cubs.

The game was scheduled to be played last week but was rained out and now is rescheduled for Monday night. Proceeds will be given to the Escanaba Cubs to help defray expenses of their trip to the state tournament last week.

It is very likely that the two teams will use their ace hurlers, Ray Menard for Bark River and Russ Hiltunen for the Bears. If they do, it will be a continuation of the last game in which the two hooked up in a brilliant pitching duel which was broken up with an Escanaba run in the last inning.

The Bears will travel to South Range tomorrow night to play the home town team of four members of the Bears, Hiltunen, Dean Bailey, Gordon Nevala and Gordon Gustafson.

15 Golfers To Compete In Soo Meet

At least 15 Escanaba and Highland club golfers have indicated intentions of competing in the annual Upper Peninsula tournament which opens with qualifying play Thursday at the Soo. Match play will be Friday and Saturday on the American and Canadian Soo courses.

Two former U. P. champs — Cooney Hogan and Ray Hirm — and the new U. P. Pro-Am champ — Tony Cass — will be among those seeking the championship.

Others are Wendell Green, Vern Kolb, Ed Gravelle, Elmer Swanson, Jr., Pinky Brunelle, Leo Vinje and Ron Hirm of the Escanaba club and John (Abe) Mikko, Jim Douglas, Gerald Harris, Stan Soderlund, David Hirm and Bud Stadel of Highland and may compete.

Dodger "Dodges" Army; Has Asthma
BROOKLYN —(AP)— The Brooklyn pitching staff figured in the news on two points yesterday.

Carl Erskine, who has won seven straight games for the Dodgers' Montreal farm in the International league, was called up by the parent club.

Big Ralph Branca, 24, was rejected for military service after taking a pre-induction examination at the Army recruiting office. The Army said he was turned down because of a "history for Asthma."

Wolverine Tickets Are Going Rapidly
ANN ARBOR —(AP)— Don Weir, football ticket manager at University of Michigan, warned today that location preference for previous purchasers of Wolverine season tickets expires Thursday.

Weir said applications postmarked prior to midnight Aug. 12 will be handled, but none will be given preference after that time.

Season ticket orders will be accepted on a non-preferential basis until there is a sellout of any game on the home schedule.

COMING TO U. P. FAIR—Don't try this with the family bus, but you can see it done when the Joie Chitwood Auto Daredevils present their 27 act, two hour thrill show at the U. P. State Fair here Tuesday, Aug. 15. In this stunt a new stock sedan is raced with another similar machine down the track with one climbing a steep ramp to sail thru the air while the other car broadsides underneath him. The first car, after flying through the air dozens of feet, is supposed to land on all fours on a receiving ramp, and usually does, thanks to the careful manner in which the stunts are worked out and run off with precision.

Stunts Galore

Joie Chitwood Coming to U. P. Fair Tuesday

Joie Chitwood, fifth place winner in the 1950 Memorial day classic at Indianapolis, will bring to Escanaba on Tuesday, Aug. 15 at the U. P. State Fair his famed auto daredevils and clowns.

Starring with the show will be a Hollywood stuntman, Bobo Canup. Bobo, who has been trained by Joie, will perform his featured ramp to jump ramp. He is 26 years of age, a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

Also included in this congregation is the original auto daredevil, Lucky Carl from Reading, Pa., which is the home of many great stuntmen and race car drivers. The motorcycle ramp to jump, which is one of the most dangerous feats attempted today, is performed by 23 year old stuntman, Lucky Carl.

These two men perform individually and combine to form a team in the spine-tingling roll-over contest in which they attempt to demolish their automobiles. This roll-over contest, which is one of 27 acts, carries with it an additional bonus of $1,000 for the driver completing the most rolls for the season. Bobo now leads by two rolls over the Pennsylvania Dutchman.

On the humorous side of the picture there will be the three funnymen, Sloppy, Slappy and Sleepy, who will bring with them a big bag of their comical antics.

A few more of the hair raising thrills and spills to be presented are the Slide for Life done by Don Meadows of Denver, Colo., and Gordon Harmon of Toledo, Ohio. The auto fireball crash will be done by Jim Jelf of Van Nuys, California. The human battering ram will be performed by Wild Bill Bates of Albuquerque, N. M.

Wild Shoots, an ex-Marine surviving the battles of the South Pacific, hails from Dallas, Texas. The Texas Cowboy will leap his speeding auto through 100 feet of space head-on into two parked automobiles in the dive bomber crash.

Six Teams Enter Girls Tournament

Six teams already have entered the Upper Peninsula girls softball tournament, Tournament Manager Patricia Frasher said today. The tournament will be held in Escanaba Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 19 and 20. Games will be played Saturday night, with finals Sunday.

Deadline for entries will be Aug. 13, when drawings will be made at 2:30 at the Escanaba Recreation center.

Three local teams are among those already entered. They are Delta Harpures, Home Ecs and Tim and Sallys.

Others entered so far are the tough M & M Maids, Marquette and Bruce Crossing.

Advances ticket sale is being conducted.

The games are scheduled in an effort to arouse interest in a possible future Lions club softball league.

Musial Takes Lead Over Jack Robinson
NEW YORK —(AP)— Stan Musial has taken a one-point lead over Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson in the National league batting derby.

While Musial, the St. Louis slugger, retained his 361 average last week, Robinson went into a slump and his mark slipped 10 points to 360. The Dodger's second baseman collected only five hits in 23 trips. Musial carved out 11 hits in 30 at bats.

Sawyer, a college professor before he turned to baseball for a living, obviously was trying a little psychology on the 27-year-old Topeka, Kas., native. The professor, as Phillips' fans even him, knew that Johnson took keen delight in beating the Cards. After all it was from the St. Louis bullpen that the Phils rescued him earlier this year. They acquired the left hander in a trade for outfielder Johnny Blainik and immediately turned him into a starting hurler.

Johnson won three games before injuring himself on a western trip. He hadn't been able to win since.

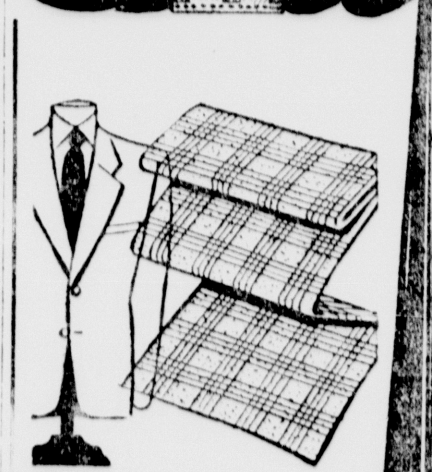

He was a trifle wild—walking six— but he had the right pitches in the clutch last night and turned back St. Louis with a two-hitter as his mates rapped four Cardinal hurlers for a 9 to 0 victory. Johnson stopped the Cards with a low breaking curve ball. Only Stan Musial got a solid hit, a single. The other safety was a slow roller that went for one base.

The victory enabled the league leading Phillies to increase their margin over second place Boston on four games as the Braves bowed to the crushing New York Giants. St. Louis fell 5½ games off the pace.

Johnson didn't even want to be congratulated by his teammates on a swell job. He rushed into the shower and out before you could say Cardinals. What was the rush?

The night's winning pitcher had a date with a girl one day old. Mrs. Johnson gave birth to the couple's first child Sunday night. Naturally he won this one for tiny Christy.

Houtteman To Face Wight In Chicago

BULLETIN

CHICAGO —(AP)— Pitcher Hal White, who produced a two-hitter against the New York Yankees last week, got a surprise call today to open the league-leading Detroit Tigers' Chicago series tonight. Art Houtteman, Manager Red Rolfe's original choice for the first of nine games in six days for the Bengals, complained again of a sore side.

CHICAGO —(AP)— The league-leading Detroit Tigers hitched their belts today for a fight in the west.

A four-game series with the Chicago White Sox opens tonight in Comiskey park—the first of nine games in six days.

Everything is crucial for the Tigers now. Some pressure was eased by the recent valorous home stand in which first place was retained against big handicaps. But the heat is still on.

Ronzani And Packers Set To Tackle Rugged Browns

GREEN BAY—"We'll be underdogs, but we'll be good underdogs."

That's what Gene Ronzani, new head coach of the Green Bay Packers, said following his appointment some months ago. Today, the Packers prepared to back up Ronzani's prediction as they closed out rugged drills for the non-conference opener against the Cleveland Browns in Toledo's Glass bowl Saturday night.

Reorganizing remnants of a 1949 cellar club and adding several promising rookies with an entirely new system, Ronzani is reviving the famed Green Bay spirit to make the 1950 Packers a rough, tough outfit—in short, good underdogs.

The Packers' four-game non-conference schedule, involving two former All-America conference squads and two holdovers from the "old" NFL, will be a testing ground for Ronzani and his staff. Nearly 40 athletes are fighting for the right to represent Green Bay in the 12-game championship card which opens here Sept. 17 with Detroit's headlining Lions providing the opposition.

Give All A Test
With no veterans of the T-formation he's installing, Ronzani plans to give every prospect a thorough test before slashing the roster to meet the league limit of 32, effective for the league opener.

In the Browns, the Packers will be facing a proven, well-established, used-to-winning club which has been operating under the same coach, Paul Brown, and the same system for four seasons. Brown has about 25 veterans on his system returning this fall.

After the Cleveland game, the Packers will test themselves before the home folks Wednesday night, Aug. 16 against Curly Lambeau and his Chicago Cardinals. It will be Lambeau's only appearance here this year. The two clubs won't meet in regular league play.

The New York Giants, who fell before the Packers in exhibitions in 1948 (7-0 in Minneapolis) and last fall (14-7 in Syracuse), will be the next foes—in Boston, Aug. 29. In the clincher before the blue-chip season, the Packers face another former AAC team, Baltimore Colts, in Milwaukee, Sept. 10. There'll also be two intrasquad games—the first in Ronzani's hometown, Iron Mountain on Aug. 19 and the second in Elkhart, Ind., Aug. 26.

Rookies Stand Out
Two rookies stood out in a scrimmage this week—Fullback Jack Cloud of William and Mary who displayed a lot of power on line smashes and End Rebel Steiner of Alabama who presented considerable possibility as a defensive halfback. Steiner also is a good pass receiver.

The four Packers playing with the College All Stars against Philadelphia Friday night will join the Bay team in Toledo Saturday night. They are Center Clayton Tommemaker of Minnesota; End Gordon Soltan of Minnesota; Guard Willie Leon Manley of Oklahoma; and Halfback Larry Coutre of Notre Dame. All are signed except Coutre.

He led the field by two strokes with 21—five under par—into the final round of the $15,000 All-American meet at Tam O'Shanter.

First prize is $2,500—a jackpot which would boost 1950 earnings for the lame-armed player from Royal Oak, Mich., nearly twofold if he wins.

Five others far down the financial list also are contending in the "poor man's showdown."

At 213 are Skip Alexander, the Knoxville, Tenn., belter who has spent one year nursing his game back to health, and Dave Douglas, the human one-iron from Newark, Del.

At 214 is young Fred Hawkins, the center from El Paso, Tex. He led the 69's in all 13 games. He is a power hitter, who turned pro last winter and is still seeking his first win.

Also at 215 are two high-ranking cash collectors who are capable of mighty straight drives—Bobby Locke and Lloyd Mangrum. Only one stroke behind them is Sam Snead, the top money winner who has bagged most of his greenbacks with sensational final round finishes.

Mangrum, the defending All-American champion, sped into contention yesterday with a 68 while Furgol, Alexander and Locke posted 69's. In all 13 pros broke 70 in the field of 76 after the greens had been watered and the pins placed in more orthodox spots.

Furgol is the sentimental favorite. He has overcome a handicap that would have forced a lot of fellows to play croquet instead of undertaking a career of golf against the nation's best.

"I'm just a 33-year-old guy with a lot of mileage and a crooked arm," says the personable gent who has averaged 71.41 strokes through 78 competitive rounds this season.

He has had to groove a swing with tremendous body action to compensate for his shriveled left arm, the result of a fall from a playground climbing bar when he was 12.

Furgol won the All-American amateur title at Tam O'Shanter in 1944 and soon afterward turned pro. He finished third in the 1947 All-American pro and collected $2,300, his biggest single money win.

But since he started playing for pay he never has won outright any regulation P. G. A. tourney, although tying twice for minor titles on the circuit.

The memory of these acts of kindness will remain with us always.

Urge Voters To Register

Aug. 23 Deadline For Primary

Persons in Delta county qualified to vote in the Sept. 12 primary election today were reminded that August 23 is the deadline for registration of those who are not now registered.

Those eligible to register are persons who are at least 21 years of age, who have been a resident of the state for at least six months, and of the township or city in which they reside for at least 20 days prior to the election.

If voters have moved from one voting precinct to another since the last election it is necessary that they re-register in the new place of residence before they vote in the Sept. 12 primary election.

Registration is with the clerk of the city or township in the place of residence. In the townships the clerks advertise when and where they will be to receive voters' registrations at least 10 days before the Aug. 23 deadline.

Escanaba City Clerk George Harvey today said voters' registrations will be received at the office of the clerk in city hall at any time during office hours.

So far there has been but one application for an absent voters' ballot in Escanaba, Harvey reported. Application for an absent voters' ballot will be received now and the ballots will be mailed out about 10 days before the election.

Munising Strikers Offer To Go Back For 4-Cent Raise

MUNISING, Mich.—Striking employees of the Munising Wood Products company last night voted to go back to work if the company would offer an "across-the-board" pay increase of four cents an hour.

Approximately 100 members of Local 3100, Carpenters and Joiners Union (AFL), cast ballots in the election in which about 85 per cent of the voters went on record in favor of ending the strike if the increase were offered.

So far, however, Munising Wood has offered only a three-cent-an-hour increase to incentive workers and a four-cent-an-hour pay hike to day rate employees. Members of Local 3100, Marquette, rejected that offer Aug. 1.

John Luecke, Escanaba, federal mediator, today called a meeting between management and labor for this afternoon.

The walkout has left 466 workers here and in Marquette jobless since June 5.

River Line Broken By Reds In Korea

down the Korean peninsula.

Hard To Defend—The new Communist offensive was only 15 miles northwest of Taegu. Another Red prong speared across the Nakdong about 30 miles to the south near Changnyong. Fresh U. S. troops were ordered to wipe out this bridgehead Tuesday at nightfall. Maj. Gen. John E. Church, commanding the 24th division, ordered the bridgehead cleared out by darkness, but later said it probably couldn't be done before tomorrow.

The fresh doughboys launched a counterattack which plunged ahead for a mile half way up an important ridge against fierce Red mortar and small arms fire, and made contact with a company of the 34th regiment already in position on the hill. Stiff Red resistance stopped the drive there.

The main fighting on the Nakdong river front was about 30 miles to the north in the vicinity of Waegwan and east of Kumchong, posing a dagger threat at Taegu in an area whose terrain might be hard to defend. A column of Red tanks was reported moving up to the river.

In the extreme south the U. S. marines scaled valley walls and battled over rugged hills to rescue one Fifth regimental unit from a Communist flank attack which temporarily stalled the leatherneck drive. Red artillery and mortars raked the American lines as the marines headed south on the highway to Kosang and the Fifth infantry regiment turned northwest toward Chinju. At Chindong, 12 miles east of Chinju, American field vehicles rolled over a Red roadblock which had stalled 45-ton Pershing tanks after one had been knocked out.

Stopped By Police, Ohio Motorist Kills Himself At Muskegon

MUSKEGON — (AP)—An Ohio motorist shot himself fatally as police stopped him last night to inquire about the non-payment of a $3.90 gasoline bill.

State police identified him as Gordon Granata, 26, of Tiffin, O. A few hours after being brought to Hincley hospital here Granata died of a pistol wound in his head.

State police and sheriff's officers stopped Granata on US-31 near Giles road after a gasoline station operator at Hart reported a motorist had driven off without paying his bill.

The state police radio had broadcast a description furnished by the station owner.

Police said that as they left their cars to question Granata he drew a pistol and shot himself in the head. Police sped him to the hospital where he died.

The pair, John Hatch Horton and Robt. Philip Jackson, said the bobbing, darting object lighted in color and about the size of a dinner plate, staged a five-minute demonstration at an estimated distance of five miles.

They were working about two miles northwest of Albion at the time.

Norwegian Freighter Breaks Up In Atlantic; Ships Rush To Rescue

NEW YORK — (AP)—A U. S. army transport today reached a stricken Norwegian freighter which is in danger of breaking up in a North Atlantic gale.

Coast Guard headquarters here said the transport General J. H. McCrae would stand by the seaswept S. S. Beltri until the Coast Guard cutter Dexter arrives later today.

The Dexter will accompany the Beltri to St. Johns, Newfoundland, standing by to put pumps aboard her or remove her crew if the vessel fails to weather the storm.

The message said the ship had sprung a leak, needed help immediately, was going slowly, rolling heavily and shipping water. It said more cracks were feared and "everything depends on weather."

Violence Predicted In New Jersey's Gasoline Price War

TRENTON, N. J. — (AP)—Violence and "possible murder" were predicted as New Jersey gasoline retailers went ahead today with plans to shut down some 3,000 service stations.

John Dressler of Hackensack, president of the New Jersey Gasoline Retailers Association, said many members of his group will close their stations today to meet here at the state capital to vote on plans for an eight-day shutdown starting tomorrow.

The shutdown plan grew out of the gasoline-price war which has lowered prices as much as five cents per gallon for standard brands.

Dressler accused the Sun Oil Company of instigating the price war. He said the firm reduced its retail price but not its wholesale price.

Excess Profits Levy On Truman Program

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Close associates said today President Truman has made up his mind to ask Congress for a multi-billion dollar excess profits tax on corporations.

This word reached Capitol Hill as some members of his own party threatened to go beyond the president and tack on an anti-profit-sharing levy on the $5,000,000,000 "first installment" general tax boost the president requested to help pay for arming against Communist aggression.

Mr. Truman did not mention an excess profits levy in his first request for more taxes, at the outbreak of the Korean war. His reported intention now to call for one was subject, of course, to developments.

Meanwhile, the new general tax bill—being built around Mr. Truman's $5,000,000,000 request—

Bridges Makes His Second Bid To Get Out Of Federal Jail

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP)—Harry Bridges, jailed as "an agent dedicated to x x x the Communist program" today makes his second bid to win freedom.

This time it is before the U. S. circuit court of appeal. He failed on his first attempt yesterday before a federal district judge.

Meanwhile, an estimated 4,000 members of Bridges' CIO Longshore Union, walked off their jobs on Hawaii sugar plantations to protest his jailing.

Bridges was jailed Saturday at government request by Federal Judge George E. Harris. The judge revoked Bridges' $25,000 bail and labelled him "loyal to the Communists."

He was out on bail while his perjury conviction awaited review by the court of appeal.

Absentee Dearborn Mayor Sighted At Chicago Gathering

CHICAGO — (AP)—Orville L. Hubbard, the absent mayor of Dearborn, Mich., may be in the Chicago area.

A man who said he was Hubbard attended a luncheon here yesterday commemorating opening of the first United States International trade fair.

He told reporters he was Hubbard, the man "they thought was going east" to inspect Atlantic coast beaches. Then he slipped off into the crowd.

Hubbard escaped a possible debtor's imprisonment Aug. 5 when process servers couldn't find him. He faces arrest on a writ charging failure to pay a $7500 judgment obtained in circuit court April 26.

Dearborn attorney John J. Fish got the judgment in a libel suit. Fish claimed the mayor libeled him in a political campaign leaflet.

Ohio Slaps Taxes On Michigan Wines In Retaliation Move

COLUMBUS, O. — (AP)—Ohio has slapped an additional, "retaliatory" tax of 46 cents per gallon on Michigan wines sold in Ohio.

This was announced today by State Tax Commissioner C. Emory Glander. He said the tax would become effective Aug. 17.

Reason for the action, he said, "lies in the fact that the state of Michigan has enacted a discriminatory tax on Ohio wines sold in Michigan."

Michigan, he said, has applied a 46-cent tax to all wines—but exempting Michigan wineries from the tax when they pay $85 or more per ton to the grape growers.

Glander said the additional tax will apply to all wineries "during which Michigan wineries pay the Michigan grape growers $85 per ton or more for the grapes from which such wine is manufactured."

The tax commissioner called the action a retaliation for the Michigan "subsidy" to grape growers and wineries.

One Dead, 12 Injured In Warehouse Roof Collapse At Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (AP)—One fireman was killed and twelve others injured yesterday when a burning warehouse roof collapsed. About 15 firemen were pulling hose into the old structure when the 200-foot long roof fell upon them.

Fire Chief John Klink said the dead man was 44-year-old Robert W. Fortune. He said seven firemen were admitted to hospitals here with critical injuries. The others were treated and dismissed.

The warehouse, formerly occupied by the Cudahy Packing company, was being dismantled when it began to blaze. Klink said the flames started from an acetylene torch.

It is estimated that it takes about two acres of farm crops per person to feed the United States.

Suspension Of Copper Duty Rejected In Senate Committee

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The Senate finance committee today shelved, on a 9 to 4 vote, a House-approved bill that would continue suspension of the 2 cents a pound duty on copper until next July 1.

This means that the government will collect 2 cents a pound on imported copper beginning with July 1, 1950, when the old wartime duty suspension expired, unless the Senate overrules its finance committee.

While "indefinitely" postponing action on the new copper bill, the committee approved a measure that will continue duty-free importation of copper scrap, along with other scrap metals.

Today's action was at least a temporary victory for western copper producers who have been battling for restoration of the duty that was suspended when the United States ran short of copper during the last war.

Father Who Tried To Kill Family Can't See Children Again

LOS ANGELES — (AP)—John Henry Grant, convicted of attempting to wipe out his family with a time-bomb, has been forbidden ever to see his children again.

The 32-year-old aircraft engineer, who faces a possible 120-year prison term, was divorced yesterday by his wife, Betty, 29. The decree specifically denies him the right to see his two children, Marie Ann, five, and Robert Earle, five. The charge was cruelty.

Grant was found guilty of trying to murder his wife and the children for $25,000 insurance. The bomb, placed in a suitcase, was discovered just before the scheduled departure of an airliner on which they were passengers April 17. No one was injured.

Youths Get Gentle Reminder In Draft

O'Connor listed the following precautions:

Stocks Take Spurt; GM Opens At $92.75

NEW YORK — (AP)—General Motors common stock shot ahead $3.12 a share to $92.75 on an opening sale of 10,500 shares in today's market.

The transfer of stock was delayed almost half an hour as buyers and sellers tried to get together on a price.

The sharp rise followed news of a special GM dividend of $2.50 a share, plus the usual $1.50, announced after the close of the market Monday.

Other motor stocks raced in front of a generally higher market. Chrysler moved up $1.62 a share to $68.87 at one time while Studebaker gained $1.12 at $39.12.

Elsewhere advances ranged to around $1 a share although most were below that figure.

Brother Of Famous Ring Lardner Dies

CHICAGO — (AP)—A brother and sister dancing act thrilled—and chilled—spectators at the Chicago fair last night—at a free performance.

Betty and Benny Fox danced on an 18-inch platform 110 feet in the air. They performed alone and together. First Betty jumped rope. Benny then joined his sister in dances—the rhumba, waltz, and the Charleston—on the tiny spot in the sky.

There were cries of "don't do it" from the crowd as they went through a series of arabesques.
